

*Images from the Gulaan(flowers) Elementary School – Shah Mansoor Camp-
June 18, 2009*

An ITA Initiative – Healing & Learning Community Centre for IDPs

Gulaan Elementary School – Shah Mansoor Camp

We SHALL OVERCOME!

& I too can think of the Moon & the Star ...

The colours of Hope

UROOJ the budding artist ... at Gulaan Elementary School

*We think of our valley flowers all the time.. amidst the barren Shah Mansoor Camp..
Our finished Murals to Adorn Gulaan Elementary School ...*

The colors and symbols of hope as we see them ..

Remembering our home, our mountains, .our orchards and gardens...

Mural Making for Therapy – Facilitated by Fauzia Minallah & Volunteers - June 18th the angels of mercy & healing

We did it.. this was our first day at our School.. with our friends !

Our very special artists !

The football contingent...

We can make our own play dough and make shapes to match !

*We named our school OURSELVES.. “Gulaan” in Pushto means Flowers ! It is the first time I was ever asked to speak my mind. I cannot write but my friend wrote the name I proposed for our school ... I think I shall now read and write..
I am not afraid of learning anymore (Mahgul)*