Celebration of International Mother’s Day

In observance of International Mother’s day an Event was organized to highlight the importance of Mothers in the society and realization of the fact that mothers are the most important pillar of the family among the children. A campaign Dekho, Bolo, Roko against child marriages was launched at the event. Different stakeholder from government and civil society also highlighted the negative effects of early marriage on Mother’s Health.

Pictorial View